

THE PATRIARCH OF JERUSALEM INAUGURATES THE EPITROPIKON

On Sunday, November 21st / December 4th 2011, the Feast of the Entrance of the Most Holy Theotokos into the Temple, His Beatitude our Father and Patriarch of Jerusalem Theophilos after celebrating at the Holy Monastic Church of Saint Constantine and Helen inaugurated the new larger room of Epitropikon (meeting room), where every day the Holy Fathers have breakfast in the morning.

This room built to accommodate the new Epitropikon was renovated by the architectural office of the Holy Sepulcher under Mr. Theodosios Mitropoulos.

His Beatitude conducting the Blessing of the Holy Water thanked Mr. Mitropoulos and wished that this new construction of the larger room seals the progress, the growth and the diligence of the Elder Brotherhood of the Fathers of the Holy Sepulcher.
