

HIS BEATITUDE INSPECTS REPARATION WORKS AT SION PATRIARCHAL SCHOOL

On Tuesday, the 20th of August/2nd of September 2014, H.B. Patriarch Theophilos of Jerusalem, accompanied by the Elder Secretary-General, Archbishop Aristarchos of Constantina, and the Acting Principal, the Reverend Monk Nikolaos Zervis, visited the Patriarchate's School of Sion.

The aim of the visit was for the Patriarch to bless the reparations intended to reinforce the building, the project recently completed by the architect of the Church of the Resurrection, Mr Theodosios Mitropoulos – as well as works underway at the dining hall of the School. The latter works are being supervised by the Principal of the Boarding House, monk Antiochos, in view of the arrival of new students for the 2014-2015 academic year.

After inspecting the works, His Beatitude gave instructions that they be carried on and financed, as they are, by the Patriarchate.
