

THE PATRIARCHATE OF JERUSALEM DECORATES THE CHURCH OF THE NATIVITY OF THEOTOKOS IN KAFR YASIF (2012-2015)

This year's Holy Easter Period saw the completion of the Byzantine decoration of the Iconostasis of the Church of the Nativity of Theotokos in the Greek Orthodox, Arab-speaking Community of Kafr Yasif, Northern Israel. The decoration was carried out by Mr Nezar Kseiboun, hailing from Kana, Galilee, at the expenses of the Patriarchate and under the supervision of the Hegoumen of Mount Tabor Monastery, f. Hilarion.

The aforementioned project is posted at the Patriarchate's Website with the wishes and blessings of H.B. Theophilos, Patriarch of Jerusalem.
