

JOINT PRIMATIAL SERVICE AT ST PAUL, CHAMBESY

On the morning of Sunday, the 11th/24th of January 2016, a Joint Liturgy was held at the Stavropegic Church of St Paul in Chambesy that had as participants the Primates and Heads of Delegations, as a testament of their joint faith and love and unity in Christ.

Co-officiating at the Joint Service were the Patriarchs, Archbishops and Heads of Delegations of the Churches that were not represented by Primates, with the exception of the representative of the Patriarchate of Antioch.

His Beatitude Theophilos, Patriarch of Jerusalem, co-officiated at the Joint Service as fourth in rank according to the Orthodox Diptychs.
