

RECENT ARCHAEOLOGICAL EXCAVATIONS ON THE FLOOR OF THE ROTUNDA IN THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY SEPULCHRE

By Dr Theo Mitropoulos

On January 11th at 6:30 p.m. the three Religious Communities (Greek, Latin, Armenian) visited the archaeological site of the Rotunda, in order to be informed about the progress of the restoration works of the floor around the Sacred Edicule. The recent archaeological excavations brought to light and revealed new archaeological findings, which are summarized below (at the link):

bitly.ws/yTes