

CONDOLENCES

On the forty days after the memorable Professor Constantine Manafis slept in the Lord, the Patriarchate of Jerusalem expresses its sincere condolences to his wife, daughter and close academic associates and denotes that the departed was a distinguished Byzantine Scholar in the department of Byzantine studies at the National Kapodistrian University of Athens. He also worked as a teacher of Hagiotaphite student Fathers and a close associate of the Library of the Patriarchate, and also exchanged the "Yearbook of Byzantine Studies" with the Journal "New Sion".

The Patriarchate prays at the Horrendous Golgotha for the repose of his soul in the land of the living.

From Secretariat-General